3. NLP in the popular media

Find one “popular media” article that discusses natural language processing, its application or related technologies. You can try news search tools such as news.google.com or you can look at individual sites like nytimes, cnn or a local paper or you can look at news aggregators such as slashdot, digg.com, etc.

Read the article and then include the following:

- Title
- Author
- URL
- a short (< 1 paragraph) summary of the article)
- 3 discussion questions related to the article
